

Organization of Graduate Students

Hampton University
Graduate College

OGS is an organization that represents all graduate students. It promotes academic excellence and communication between faculty, staff, and students. OGS is also involved in professional development, Graduate College recruitment, and sponsors educational events which reflect the graduate student body.

GET CONNECTED!

For more information, please contact hugrad@hamptonu.edu