

Hampton University

Graduate College

THESIS/DISSERTATION EDITORS

Disclaimer: The individuals listed below are not employed by the Graduate College. This list is provided as a resource for graduate students at Hampton University. Students may hire these independent contractors for editorial support. The Graduate College cannot guarantee their availability. It is the responsibility of the student to select the editor that is best suited to meet their research needs and obtain all applicable information such as fees.

NAME	BACKGROUND	CONTACT
Ariane Cooley	Ariane Cooley has over 15 years' worth of experience writing and editing professionally, specializing in assisting masters and doctoral students refine and polish their papers. She holds a B.S. in English with a focus on Writing from Towson University. To receive a quote or contact her about a project, email her at ArianeCooley@gmail.com .	arianecooley@gmail.com 970-964-8953 Arkansas
Mrs. Karin Dancy	Mrs. Dancy holds a bachelor's degree in Political Science from Hampton University and a master's degree in Public Administration from Syracuse University. Freelance experience in writing and editing funding proposals, manuscripts, articles, reports and other copy for domestic and international entities. Over 23 years of expertise in proposal writing, editing and review; developmental and basic editing for book authors, academicians, bloggers, and writers.	proofwhiz@gmail.com www.proofwhiz.com 704-222-9649 North Carolina
Editor Etal	Thank you so much for considering using Editor Etal to fulfill your editing needs. We are led by a veteran in higher education for more than 30 years. Dr. Angela Albert has taught doctoral-level courses and mentored students during the research phase of their dissertation journey for more than 16 years. Editor Etal is poised to meet and exceed your expectations.	editor123.etal@gmail.com https://editoretal.com/ 407-984-6207 Florida
Dr. Margaret Lee	Dr. Lee is a retired university professor of English and Linguistics with specialties in Rhetoric and Composition, Language Variation, Grammar, and Research Writing. She has served as HU University Editor, Writing Center Director, and Web Content Editor. She holds a B.S. in French and English and an M.A. in English Education from Hampton University, and a Ph.D. in Rhetoric and Linguistics from Indiana University of Pennsylvania. She is a published author and	mlee303@yahoo.com 757-851-5773 Hampton, VA

Hampton University
Graduate College
THESIS/DISSERTATION EDITORS

	serves on the Editorial Board of Names: A Journal of Onomastics of the American Name Society. Dr. Lee has extensive experience in editing church, professional, and service organization documents, as well as NASA technical papers, grant proposals, book manuscripts, theses and dissertations.
Ms. Ina Whitehead	Ms. Whitehead served as the HU School of Nursing dissertation editor from 2002 – 2012. While in this position, she also edited documents for faculty/administrators, including grants, articles, and reports. Since leaving HU in 2012, Ms. Whitehead has continued to work closely with HU faculty and students. She holds a M.S.Ed. from Purdue University in instructional design and B.A. in English from Xavier University (OH).	lwhitehead55@hotmail.com 757-753-8321 West Dundee, IL
Dr. Clare Xanthos	Dr. Xanthos has a B.S. from the University of Bradford (UK), a M.S. from the University of Salford (UK), and a Ph.D. from the London School of Economics (UK). Dr. Xanthos is the Academic Editor and Owner of The Scholastic Editor (TheScholasticEditor.com) and has worked as the Senior Researcher and Assistant Professor for the Morehouse School of Medicine and Fellow/Lecturer for the University of the West Indies.	Clare.xanthos@gmail.com 770-702-8305 Woodstock, GA

For additional approved editors please contact the Graduate College at hugrad@hamptonu.edu or (757) 727-5454.