

2021 New Graduate Student Orientation

Engaging Today's Graduate Students for Tomorrow's Impact

Wednesday, August 25, 2021

1:00 pm – 3:00 pm

Turner Hall, Room 129

Dr. Michelle Penn-Marshall, Presiding
Vice-President for Research and Associate Provost
Dean, Graduate College

Welcome and Remarks

Dr. JoAnn W. Haysbert, Chancellor and Provost

Introduction of Graduate College Team, the Organization of Graduate Students (OGS) Executive Team, Graduate Program Coordinators, and Police Chief David Glover of the HU Police Department

Dr. Michelle Penn-Marshall

Office of Financial Aid & Scholarships

Mr. Douglas Gardner

Center for Information Technology

Dr. Katina Ward-James

Office of the Registrar/Registration Procedures

Mrs. Jorsene Cooper or representative

William R. and Norma B. Harvey Library

Ms. Danita White

Academic Catalog and Handbook Overview

Mrs. Kristie Cansler

Ending Remarks, Gratitude, and Feedback Form Reminder

Dr. Michelle Penn-Marshall

Program Coordinators' Session/New Graduate Students Q & A

Program Coordinators in Break-out Groups

Please complete your feedback forms*

Special gratitude is extended to: The Office of the Chancellor and Provost, Graduate Program Coordinators, The School of Science, Office of the Registrar, William R. and Norma B. Harvey Library, Center for Information Technology, Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships, Army ROTC, Mr. Tommie Collins, Dr. Vera Campbell, the Organization of Graduate Students, and others who assisted to make this event possible.